

Hospital Administration Department, KMC, Manipal

1. Why to choose MD Hospital Administration at KMC Manipal?

This clinical specialization being provided exclusively to MBBS Doctors, is running successfully since 1989 at this college. The role of Management as science and art in the medical sciences institutions producing physician-leaders or clinical administrators have been considered with great depth in the last couple of decades with the advent of insurance as a healthcare financing model, quality and accreditation as a management tool. The healthcare industry in other parts of the world has similar influences. The department trains students in cutting edge management education in areas relating to Hospital Planning, General administration & Management, Finance & Human Resource Management, Health Economics, Hospital Information System, Business leadership & law. The department is involved in the administration of the KMC Hospital with bed strength of 2032. It gives first-hand experience as Managers on duty, in all areas of specialization under one roof. State-of-the-art facilities and a vibrant learning atmosphere ensure trainees to gain expertise

2. Core competencies pursued during postgraduate training at Manipal

- Cognitive Domain: The student would have acquired theoretical competencies in 4 modules of General Administration and Management, Health Administration and Medical Care, Hospital Administration and Hospital Planning, Administration of Clinical and Non-Clinical Services. The student will be able to independently work in Financial and Material Management of hospitals, manpower planning, staffing of organization, regulations applicable to hospital planning, maintenance of buildings, understand medico-legal aspects of medical practices.

- Affective Domain: The student would have acquired attitudinal competencies and will demonstrate personal development in routine conduct, behavior and emotional stability, Innovative and enterprising, honesty and integrity, interpersonal skills and leadership qualities. Will be able to adopt ethical principles and etiquette dealing with patient care, physicians and regulatory & statutory authorities

3. Career opportunities after Post graduation

- The students of this program have gone on to become CEOs / COOs of large corporate hospitals in India & middle-east, Medical Superintendents, Academicians of Medical college hospitals.
- Researchers and Public health specialists and Consultants in India and UK-NHS, USA, faculty in medical colleges.
- Few students have entered Health Insurance sector as Managers of Claim, Underwriting and Medical networking.
- Few have become entrepreneurs establishing companies providing consultancies for NABH Accreditation, Hospital Information System companies.

Also Visit:

<https://manipal.edu/kmc-manipal/department-faculty/department-list/hospital-administration.html>